

Church on Loan

a program for Small Groups from the Church of the Larger Fellowship

How can the Church on Loan program help a UU group? COL will help you

- plan and present effective and meaningful worship services
- offer easy-to-teach religious education programs
- provide easy-to-prepare study programs to expand opportunities for adults to interact

Who Should Enroll? Does your UU group

- include fewer than 50 people?
- rely primarily on lay-leaders?
- meet at least twice a month?
- seek new ideas, energy and resources?

What resources are available from the Church on Loan?

- Sundays Online ~ More than 200 complete services with sermons by well-known Unitarian Universalist ministers available for use in worship.
- Religious Education Resources ~ The CLF has a Religious Education Website. Church on Loan groups can subscribe at no additional cost to RE Express Plus, designed by professional religious educators for small RE programs, including CLiF Notes: A Monthly Curriculum for Families and Small Groups; the RE Index of Resources, an index of our extensive online religious education resources, searchable by topic and age; REsources for Living Web page: a column inviting kids (and grown-ups) to reflect on matters from how to celebrate holidays to what it means to be a Unitarian Universalist; and the KidTalk Web page: monthly information and activities on everything from holidays around the world to spiritual practices and social justice projects.
- The CLF Loan Library ~ With new books being added every year, the CLF Library offers Religious Education curricula for children, youth, and adults. In addition, we offer books on UU history, biographies, meditation manuals, children's stories, and self-help books.

- RE Connections ~ online resource with ideas for seasonal celebrations, informative articles, and games and activities for families and children.
- Between Sundays ~ a website designed to help parents and other adults answer religious questions raised by children and youth.
- Quest Archive ~ online archive of the CLF's monthly publication of sermons, readings, meditations, and more.
- Communication ~ regular email and telephone communication to maximize your CLF experience.
- E-mail lists ~ the CLF creates online communities, small cyber-groups, and online courses to help members stay in touch.
- Helpful Links ~ a collection of links to a variety of resources for individuals, small groups, and congregations.
